CSBG Specialist is working with CARES sub-grantees who are behind with spending down. Agencies were given until Jan. 15, 2022 to get at the percentage of where they should be in their expenditures/budget and will re-allocate to other sub-grantees. Will update advisory council on next steps.

c. Advisory board members present reviewed and mission statement and made following revision:

To empower Adams County individuals, families, and diverse communities to achieve stability and self-sufficiency by linking and leveraging accessing local resources.

Approval was done with the 3 members present, however, not finalized due to no quorum.

- d. CSBG Specialist offered a tour of the building to those interested.
 - III. Next meeting - Scheduled for March 11th, 2022 at 8:30 a.m. at Human Services Center. We will be offering the flexibility of hybrid virtual and present.

Will be going over the following:

- Bylaws: change in # of members?
- Election of Officers
- Ideas for recruitment: we did talk about various ideas on who to reach out to and target.
